The Whole F'N Pocket Guide

Rob Van Dam
Rob Van Dam could be considered the most arrogant wrestler in ECW, but as the saying goes, "It ain't bragging if you can back it up!"

Mike Awesome
Awesome stormed back onto the ECW scene at the "Anarchy Rulz" Pay-Per-View in September, 1999 defeating both Taz and Masato Tanaka to capture the ECW World Heavyweight Championship.

Tommy Dreamer
Since the inception of Extreme Championship Wrestling, one man has stood alone at the forefront of the Hardcore Revolution pushing forward on all cylinders, "The Innovator of Violence," Tommy Dreamer.

Sabu
Homicidal! Suicidal! Genocidal! Three words that suit the deranged wrestling style of the legendary Sabu perfectly.

Raven
Once thought to have been vanquished from ECW forever, the infectious, mind-twisting disease that is Raven has returned, more devious and powerful than ever!

Lance Storm
Lance Storm, from Calgary, Alberta Canada, has established himself as one of the premiere talents in Extreme Championship Wrestling, aligning himself with Justin Credible to form the Impact Players… the most dominant group in the ECW today.

Justin Credible
While establishing himself as one of the most talented wrestlers in Extreme Championship Wrestling, Credible has also proven to be one of the most despicable, self-serving rule-breakers of all time!

Jerry Lynn
Jerry Lynn, "The New F'N Show," uses a veritable encyclopedia of scientific wrestling moves and high flying maneuvers to wow fans and defeat opponents.

New Jack
"The Original Gangsta," New Jack, puts the "X" in extreme! New Jack always enters the arena with a rusty garbage can full of kick-ass and takes violence to the next level by attacking opponents with anything and everything he can get his hands on!

Rhino
Rhino. There is no better name for this young man. Unbelievable power. Impressive speed. Unmatched destructive impulses. All the tools are there and it is only a matter of time before they fall into place for the "Rookie Monster."

Angel
A brawler from the streets of New York City, Angel befriended the upstart Baldies. Declared "The New King of the Streets," Angel began replacing the established rules with rules of his own.

Axl Rotten
Rotten is a very experience wrestler with a virtual library of scientific wrestling moves at his fingertips. But Axl would rather finish an opponent with a chair shot to the face than with a figure-four leglock.

Bill Alfonso
The "Manager of Champions," Bill Alfonso has the unenviable task of managing the homicidal, suicidal, genocidal Sabu and "Mr. Pay Per View," Rob Van Dam.

Balls Mahoney
Balls never comes to the ring without his trusty folding chair by his side. So whether he's cracking someone over the head with it, or he's the one getting cracked, he's always giving 110%.

Big Sal E. Graziano
Big Sal E. Graziano makes up one half of the new Full Blooded Italians (FBI) with fellow "countryman" Little Guido.

C.W. Anderson
Anderson, a/k/a "The Enforcer," is a true worker in the ring and has been rewarded with matches against some of ECW's biggest stars.

Chris Chetti
Many an opponent has looked past Chetti, deeming him a ham, only to find themselves on their backs for the 1-2-3 just moments later!

Steve Corino
Feeling that he is "above" the average ECW combatant, Corino constantly belittles the hardcore aspects of ECW and often refuses to compete in this rough and tumble type of match.

Danny Doring
With neon pink tights proudly proclaiming “Muffin Ass” across his derriere, the cocky “Dastardly Strut,” slicked back hair, sunglasses and an “I’m cooler than you” attitude, Danny Doring brings the confidence of a seasoned veteran to the ring.

Dawn Marie
Dawn Marie never hesitates to prove that she is more wildcat than kitten by throwing down inside of the ring, and out!

Francine
Be it with an inverted DDT or an extremely revealing outfit, Francine commands attention every time she enters the arena.

Little Guido
The pride of Sicily, Little Guido has not only emerged as the new leader of the FBI (Full Blooded Italians), but as one of the premiere high-flying performers in Extreme Championship Wrestling.

Jack Victory
Jack Victory is ECW’s muscle for hire. It makes no difference if he’s acting as a bodyguard or as a hitman, Victory will get the job done – for the right price.

Jason
The self-proclaimed “Sexiest Man on Earth,” Jason is the manager of Justin Credible and the chief advisor of the Impact Players.

Jazz
Jazz isn’t just the best female athlete in the ECW; she’s one of the best athletes in professional wrestling today.

Nova
With a fresh, funky outlook, an intense wrestling style and a repertoire of lightning-fast ring skills too long to list, Nova is poised to shoot straight to the top of the ECW.

Roadkill
Straight from the foothills of Pennsylvania comes the massive Roadkill, the world’s first Amish professional wrestler.

Super Crazy
After years of flying through the Mexican skies like a madman, Super Crazy finally landed stateside with ECW and hasn’t looked back since.

Simon Diamond
Diamond is unique in that only his astounding cockiness and big mouth outdo his rock-solid technical skills and amazing aerial abilities!

Spike Dudley
Since the beginning of his legendary career, LSD has made a habit of defeating opponents that are three times his size – literally!

Tony DeVito
Having grown up on the hard streets of New York City, DeVito has developed a unique style of wrestling that incorporates aerial attacks and basic street brawling for a devastating combination of moves.

Yoshihiro Tajiri
Having cut his teeth, and kicked in those of his opposition in Japan, there is a strong eastern influence that can be seen in Tajiri's wrestling style.

Wild Bill Wyles
Once Wyles finally got a chance to showcase his grinding wrestling skills, his hard work carried over from setting up the ring, to performing inside of it.

Beulah McGillicutty
The lovely Beulah McGillicutty made her ECW debut at Heat Wave 95 as a surprise to childhood friend, Raven. Her career came to a premature end after she found herself on the receiving end of a vicious Dudley Death Drop.

Cyrus the Virus
Cyrus has made a name for himself by repeatedly "infecting" the egos of the combatants with the type of inflammatory gossip that leads to confrontation and feuding, and in turn, creating "heat" for "The Virus."

Joel Gertner
The man with the "golden vocal chords" is a brilliant wrestling strategist, an insightful commentator, and his own biggest fan.

Joey Styles
Joey Styles is the long-time voice of Extreme Championship Wrestling. He has established a cult following that makes him as popular with the ECW fans as any of the wrestlers!

Judge Jeff Jones
Judge Jeff Jones began his career in Extreme Championship Wrestling as a crooked referee. He quickly crossed the line by declaring himself ECW's head official.

Tracy Smothers
Allegedly hailing from "Nashville," Italy, Tracy Smothers is one of the most seasoned veterans in Extreme Championship Wrestling, having grappled for various promotions all over the world.

Louie Spicoli

Veteran Louie Spicolli is one of the craftiest wrestlers in Extreme Championship Wrestling history. Spicolli began training when he was seventeen years old and honed his mat skills while winning titles in organizations all over the globe.

Taz
Taz has many lethal wrestling maneuvers at his disposal, stemming from a strict background in grappling and martial arts, combined with a rough childhood growing up on the hard streets of Brooklyn.

The Sheik
Known as the "Madman of Wrestling," the legendary Sheik was the forefather of extreme wrestling. The Sheik was the first to begin the regular use of "foreign objects" in the ring.

Tommy Rich
Tommy Rich has rediscovered his Italian heritage and found a family with "fellow Italians" Tracy Smothers and Little Guido, a/k/a the Full Blooded Italians; the FBI.